

BPL will be the death of small-signal reception and experimentation Please note article in Monday Aug 18 Washington Post about the bad interference between CDMA cell phones and EMS radio systems during the recent power blackout. You are being lied to about the (lack of) interference potential of the new services you are asked to approve.